OmniCanna Health Solutions

A high quality of life is one of the most rewarding ways to feel great and outright spoil our inner and outer beauty ourselves. The OmniCanna product line named 'The Hempery' by The OmniCanna Corporation is a new stage of innovative cannabinoid-based product solutions, with a fresh focus on the health decisions of today.

OmniCanna's formulations cover a wide range of targeted ailments and conditions that are believed to benefit from cannabinoid elements. Through participation in joint ventures, OmniCanna targets critical ailments, such as cancer, AIDS/HIV related cancers, and neurobehavioral disorders, asthma, glaucoma, influenza, pain management, & PTSD are all critical ailments that OmniCanna targets in their research and development.

OmniCanna's own proprietary product line 'The Hempery' is targeted for more general conditions, such as sunburn and skin dryness.

Cannabinoids are the ideal solution due to their organic properties that the body responds extremely well to. Endogenous endocannabinoid system is responsible for the unique communication pathways in the brain and body affecting many important functions including modulation of the response to disease. Our formulations target the endocannabinoid system thus affecting the cause, not only the symptoms.

OmniCanna's motivation to bring superior products to their respective markets is based on the incredible market need for answers to critical ailments and general conditions.

The personal care market including cosmeceuticals, nutraceuticals, and anti-aging is one of the largest in the world. The global personal care market was estimated at $350 billion in 2012, with skin care to grow approximately 7% over the next five years. The US cosmeceuticals market is estimated at about $5-6 billion, while, in the EU, the market is worth between $3 and $5 billion. The Japanese is a market value of about $6-8 billion. The OmniCanna products are soon to be available in the over the counter markets which makes them attractive for distribution everywhere.

OmniCanna's unique formulations matched with OmniCanna's unmatched ability to deliver new and exciting products to the market enhanced by our branding identity is essential to our success. Our formulations include proprietary extracts that increase the quality, durability, and effectiveness of the products, especially when compared to other consumer options that currently exist on the shelf.

In conclusion, OmniCanna is the next stage of innovative cannabinoid-based solutions, with a focus on the health needs of people today. Globally, the numbers of critical ailments are rising. Despite scientific advances, we are facing a situation in which millions of people continue to be affected by life-threatening conditions with no truly effective means of treating them. The world needs smart science and research, strong leadership, and new products to respond to ever growing medical need.

Mission & Vision

OmniCanna's mission in scientific research is to create novel cannabinoid-based formulations to respond to a variety of medical needs.

Our aim is to provide cannabinoid-based solutions to the mainstream market through several different avenues. We are inspired by patient lead experience suggesting that cannabinoid-based extracts are effective against devastating ailments such as cancer. We wish to utilize the unique and potent benefits of the cannabis and hemp plants to challenge the status quo and introduce formulations that help patients with a broad spectrum of ailments, from the minor to life-threatening.

Quality

Quality is one of the most significant parts of cosmeceutical and nutraceutical development. Our products are tested extensively for quality control. Daily protocols are necessary for quality assurance before and after releasing our products, and we are working hard to design such protocol. OmniCanna understands what consumers want and how to fill an important market need.

Ethics

Respect for human life is a core value at OmniCanna. We believe that there are countless possibilities to be unleashed from the cornucopia of nature for good health and wellbeing. We use the latest science and technology to study these possibilities and make our products accessible to all.
